

Junior Summer Tennis Program

Junior Tennis for All Levels of Play

Pee Wees (4-6 yrs old): Designed for the juniors just starting out. Kids will be introduced to the fundamental skills, movement and coordination necessary to build a lifetime of enjoyment from the game.

Rookies (7-9 yrs old): Players continue to develop their fundamental skills. They begin to develop a better understanding of the game format and scoring through play based drills.

Challengers (10-13 yrs olds): Players are starting to understand the basic tactical and strategic approach to match play. Players will be organized into skill appropriate groups. Focus will be on technique and strategy using games-based drills.

Varsity (14-17 yrs old): For our high school aged players looking to learn the game or make their high school team. Players will be organized into skill appropriate groups. Focus will be on technique and strategy using games-based drills and match play.

HTC Junior Team (11 yr & older): For HTC junior members only. Junior team players will participate in interclub matches, supervised practices and match play by Mike and his staff. Emphasis will be placed on growing your overall game through match play and being a part of a team.

“SERIOUS PASSION AND FUN FOR THE GAME”

Head Pro and Club Manager Michael Louis

Currently the Head Coach of Men's Tennis at UCONN, Mike brings his knowledge of the game to a Jr program with emphasis on all around skill development, court etiquette and passion to grow the game of tennis with your Jr player. He has been teaching all age groups for over 15 years from beginners to high performance players. Whether your Jr. is in it for the fun or to acquire the edge to reach the next level, he will instill serious passion and fun for the game at any level of play.

Private and Group Lessons: Arrange with our head pro Mike Louis, Colin Schlank (asst. pro) and Chris Carlos (asst. pro) all season long. Please keep in mind HTC programs take priority over private lessons. We will be sure to find a time that is convenient for you.
